HAPPY NEW YEAR

Some would say we are mad we would say we are enthusiastic

We had an excellent day at Tintern although it did rain predominantly (words from the BBC weather report). 19 of us sat down on one long table and we all had good ideas as to what we had for Christmas and what we were going to do for the coming year.

The interest for a weekend in Devon is very strong and I am at present trying to find a cheap hotel with Indoor Swimming Pool and Jacuzzi/beauty parlour for the girls (& boys). Some suggestion that we pose for a Calendar for next year (be a sell out) men included - we all visualised Phil in a swimsuit.

About 5 MG cars (sorry 1 Triumph) turned up for the display. There were about the same from other people. I was very surprised that the souvenir shop was open for ice-cream etc. - full marks for enterprise. The last to leave as usual was the famous 7 and we toddled home about 3.30 p.m. by which time it was getting dark. "Roll on the summer".

Christmas Party 22/12/06

We celebrated our Christmas Party at the Fugitives club two days before Christmas.

Most of the members dressed for the 60's/Grease with the men with their Black Curly wigs and the ladies in their Swirly skirts and chiffon scarves. The Disco music blasted out the sounds from the 60's such as "Calendar Girl" and "Take good care of my Baby" which reminded most of us of our youth. The proprietors organised an excellent buffet with plenty of good food for all. What a perfect end to an excellent year with a great bunch of people.

The Beverley sisters. ???

NOVEMBER PUB RUN 2006

A great time was had by all.Ok so Richard didnt like his chicken,but the salad was great as linda went around three times?????? And you all thought I was cheeky eh? Now not mentioning any names but Richard is planning a great trip somewhere for the club,we dont know where yet as the sat nav hasn't told him yet. So watch this space. Lorraine worked out all the money and was spot on so never argue with her on the money side,wonders if Richard has learnt that by now. Apparently Linda wants to go to the Isle of Wight,why we will never know but plans are afoot.N.B. we all learnt a few tricks about ironing from linda,nuff said,tee hee. Thankfully Angela wore a pair of shoes and we didn't get to see her toes,Tony behave The love birds Keith and Sandra kept us all amused with hand holding and their sweet nothings whispering,
